

Bedtime Story For The Little Ones

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE LIBERTY BONDS.

By HOWARD H. GARRIS.

"THANK you very much for buying that Thrift stamp for me yesterday," said Nurse Jane Fussy Wiggly to Uncle Wiggly Longlegs one morning, as the bunny rabbit gentleman came down stairs in his hollow stump bungalow for breakfast.

"Oh, pray don't mention it," said the bunny, "I was glad to do it. Besides, buying your stamp, and my own, helped me to get away from the bad Wiggly-Wamie."

"You glad for that?" said the monkey lady. "I hope, some day, to save up enough money for a Liberty bond."

"What's that?" asked Uncle Wiggly. "I suppose I ought to know."

"Well, I have been so busy, Uncle Wiggly, that I haven't had time to tell you. I haven't kept up with all the war business. I suppose Liberty bonds have something to do with war, haven't they, Nurse Jane?"

"Indeed they have! When you buy Liberty bonds you help the soldiers just the same as when you buy war stamps, Uncle Wiggly. And you don't lose your money, either. You'll get it all back."

"Thank you so much," said Uncle Wiggly. "I'll try to get some."

"I want to buy all the Liberty bonds I can, to help the soldiers win the war for us," said Uncle Wiggly. "I don't want to lose it."

"You'll get it all back," said Nurse Jane. "I'll try to get some."

"I don't want to lose it," said Uncle Wiggly. "I'll try to get some."

The Old Man Who Thinks He Will Not Grow Old Already Is as Old as Methuselah, But Doesn't Know It.

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX.

THE old man in the buff waistcoat, decked with red, announced to his guests that he never intended to grow old. The statement interested him—he was the oldest looking person in the room.

The party of which he was plainly the best, occupied a table next to the hotel, where he sat in a big fashionable chair, with his feet on a footstool.

None of the company, dining at his expense, challenged his statement, but he repeated it, like a child crying in the dark.

The guests smiled at the poor old man, who was so sure of himself. He had been a soldier, and he had seen many things.

But he didn't know it. He was as old as Methuselah, but he didn't know it. He was as old as Methuselah, but he didn't know it.

DISGUSTED—Possibly your trouble is due to a combination of indigestion and nervousness. The beautiful girl flushes easily when she has to speak or perform in public, but she gets over this as she grows more accustomed to appearing before people.

Young Widow—Try massaging the bust with warm cream butter, and then rubbing with ice. The cocoa butter nourishes the tissues, and the ice makes the muscles firm.

Constant Reader—Get a hair specialist to give you treatment with the electric vibrator. This will stimulate the scalp. Also, get a good tonic and use it faithfully. Your hair needs nourishment.

Brown Eyes—You are about 30 pounds overweight; you should weigh 125 to 130 pounds, as your dress should be dark, if possible, and simple in line. Crepe de chine is a good choice; a rich brocade would be stunning, but over the front to the belt, touching the belt almost under the side seams—thereby giving an unusual slanting line—will make the bust seem smaller. A V cut neck will give a more slender effect than a round or a square one.

M. E. L.—You should wear flower colors—anyone as fair as you. Pinks and blues, violet, lavender, rose, green, pale yellow combined with other colors. You did not give your age, so I cannot tell exactly what color weight should be, but I judge you are rather young, and 125 pounds is an average for a girl of five feet.

George B. Cortright is slated to manage the Republican national campaign, according to eastern papers. Houston reports that Carrie Nation arrived in that town last night, but has created no disturbance, stating that she is on a lecturing tour.

Reports from Hawaii indicate that it is nearly certain that the Hawaiian republic will become a reality. Government engineers have reported favorably on the project.

Electricity was narrowly averted at a conference of Methodist divines at Young Men's Christian association, two of the reverend gentlemen passed the life to each other.

After being twice the victim of an attempted assault by a negro at Brown, Tex., a young woman shot her assailant twice last night. He will live, but is expected that when he recovers he will be lynched.

"Fabricated" Ships To Speed England's Output. London, Eng., May 18.—"Fabricated" vessels are one of the latest and most interesting developments of Great Britain's shipbuilding drive.

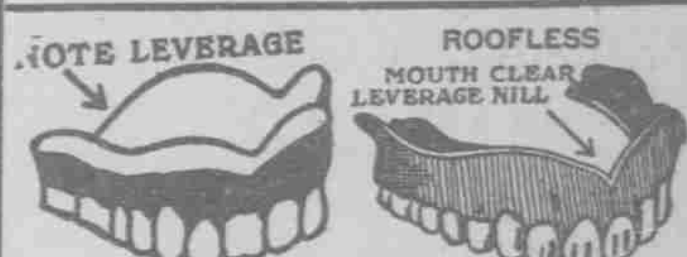

A fabricated ship is one whose component parts are manufactured in other than shipbuilding yards, usually in plants inland. The new fabricated ship is larger than most of the standard ships and there is not a curved frame in it.

In fabrication of ships the steel was increased speed of production and also to utilize for shipbuilding purposes such plants as bridge-building yards and land engine factories.

It is expected that ships of the new type soon will materially increase the tonnage output.

The Advantages of Roofless Plate

1. As the part next to the gum is of very soft rubber, it gives in chewing, as the natural teeth, thereby enabling you to eat food with the old style plate. You cannot chew it.

2. The roof of the mouth is clear, it can be put in immediately after extraction and the plate settles with the gums as there is no hard ridge in the roof of the mouth to hold it back. When these plates are put in immediately after extraction and "settle" with the gums, of course there is no plate in the world can come anywhere near the fit of these.

3. Naturally they can be made to fit any mouth—and mouths that cannot wear old style plates—on the roof deep, shallow, flat, is not taken into consideration at all.

4. They have 100 per cent better suction—soft rubber as against hard thin as paper—against the one-fourth inch thickness of the old roof plate.

5. Comfort, taste, freedom from voice interference, and many other advantages that will suggest themselves to you if you will look at the diagram. Teeth extracted one day, plates delivered the next day.

Showing toothpick between the teeth—exactly the same as in the natural teeth.

Transparency shows patented attachment of these teeth—exactly the same "split" crown is used as on the natural roof.

No "pink" rubber—no gums show—exactly same as your natural teeth.

Price $20 to $40

NOTE—See our new "Removable Bridge" and "Removable Denture" and much more sanitary. We are the only makers of this plate in the Southwest.

Welsh Patriots Help Form Nation

Revolutionary History Of United States, From The Declaration Of Independence To The Present.

By MADISON C. PETERS.

SIX Welshmen were among the pioneers who selected the James river in Virginia for the site of a colony in 1807.

John Adams, John Howland, Thomas Rogers and Stephen Hopkins, ancestor of the signer of the Declaration of Independence, of the same name, came with the Pilgrim Fathers on the Mayflower in 1620. Jones, the captain of the ship, was a Welshman.

Roger Williams, the pioneer of religious liberty in America, was Welsh. Patrick Henry, the great orator of the Revolution, Scotch on the father's side was Welsh on the mother's side—she was a Welshman and her inheritance the gift of eloquence.

Jefferson of Welsh Descent. The ancestors of Thomas Jefferson, author of the Declaration of Independence, came to Virginia from the foot of the Snowdon, in Carmarthen-shire, North Wales, and his motto: "Resistance to tyrants is obedience to God" is characteristic of Welsh love of liberty.

Of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, Clynwer, Florio, Gwyn, Harbison, Hopkins, Hopkinson, Lewis, Middleton, the Morrises (Robert and Lewis), Morton, John Penn and John Pennant, were Welsh.

While the Lees and the Adamsons had a Welsh strain in their English blood, the Welsh Cal, Marshall's gallant ancestor, was a Welshman.

Green uniforms on which were inscribed in white letters, Liberty or Death, were worn by the Welsh patriots. The Welsh Cal, Marshall's gallant ancestor, was a Welshman.
